5-Day Health and Safety Representatives and Principals / Deputy Principals Initial Level OHS Training Course

Are your health and safety representatives adequately trained (per s67, OHS Act) to effectively exercise their rights and powers?

Do principals and deputy principals understand the obligations imposed by Victoria's Health and Safety Legislation?

Introduction:

This 5-day course (per s67, OHS Act) is formally approved by WorkSafe Victoria for Health and Safety Representatives and Principals / Deputy Principals. Five days of intensive training provides participants with a comprehensive knowledge of occupational health and safety and the practical skills to assist in the implementation of an effective health and safety workplace strategy. The course has been developed by – and is conducted by – OHS professionals currently involved in assisting employers to effectively manage health and safety.

The topics covered include:

OHS legislation & standards	Employer & employee responsibilities
Rights & powers of HSRs / WorkSafe	OHS consultation & issue resolution
HS committees / Office safety	Risk assessment & hazard management
Common school hazards / Bullying	Workplace inspections / Plant / Chemicals
Incident notification & investigation	OHS management systems / Audits

Who should attend?:

Elected employee health and safety representatives, nominated employer health and safety representatives, principals, deputy principals, and health and safety committee members. Further details of legal entitlements of health and safety representatives (per s67, OHS Act) to attend WorkSafe Victoria approved training can be found at: www.worksafe.vic.gov.au
